

New Players Who Join AFTER Try-Outs

Voted as Policy by Board of Directors - January 2008

1. Players joining the club after try-outs will follow the on-line registration procedures and will be placed into REC PLUS status in their proper age division so that they may begin to play/practice.
2. The player will begin their evaluation process with the teams in that age division and shall play and /or practice with each team during the evaluation process.
3. NO PLAYER will be directly added to the A team roster.
4. This evaluation period will allow all coaches in the age division to look at the player's skills so that the player may be placed on an appropriate level team with in their proper age division.
5. The decision to place the player on a given team in the age group will be decided by all coaches in that age division on the boys or girls side. If there is a conflict between coaches, the age group trainers and the Dir of Boys/or Girls will be consulted for final approval.
6. All players who miss try-outs will follow this procedure.
7. Once the coaches in the age division have reached an agreement as to where the player should be placed, the manager/coach of that team will contact the registrar to make all necessary changes to the rosters.
